DEDICATION

Through our four years at Billerica Memorial High School, we have been guided quite ably by Mrs. Houghton, our friend and advisor. She has been a great help in planning and making successful our class activities. We have always found her ready with advice when we sought it. It is with the intention of repaying in some small way the debt of gratitude that we owe her, that we dedicate the Wannalancet to Mrs. Gertrude D. Houghton.

Best luck to one of the greatest girls I know!

SENIOR CLASS

WILLIAM CHARLES LAVERY

July 15, 1941

Ambitiousness . . . ability . . . affability . . . adeptness . . . all-round athlete . . . this is our A plus hero whom all these wonderfully descriptive adjectives couldn't effectively represent . . . dating Pat Petipas is his pet pleasure . . . frowns on those who have no respect for others . . . campus bound this fall to commence preparations for a career as a teacher-coach . . . there's only one direction for Bill and that is up.

Wannalancet; Class president 1, 3, 4; Student Council vice-president 3; Smoke Signal 3; Dramatic Club 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4, co-captain 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, co-captain 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Good Government Day representative.

DAVID BARRELLE

November 19, 1941

Dependability personified . . . personality plus . . . terrific sense of humor . . . Dave has been our class vice-president for the past two years and has well demonstrated his capability . . . there's never a dull moment when he's around, so it is quite logical that his chief delight is parties . . . girls who fib don't make him very happy, though! . . . Dave aspires to a career in the Air Force, where success is bound to be his.

Class vice-president 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2; Bowling 1, 2, 3, 4, team captain 3; Football 1, 2; Junior and Senior Prom Committees.

shotter,
I don't forget

Popularity . . . potential . . . intelligence . . . sincerity . . . all the words in the dictionary just couldn't do justice to our wonderful Dot . . . in her four years at B.M.H.S., she has proved that it is possible to do everything well—if your name is Doty . . . only one thing subdues her enthusiasm, and that is conceited people . . . always on her toes, Dot loves to dance . . . Fall of '59 will find her doing her usual wonderful job, this time as a secretary.

One of our backstage best . . . able worker . . . Andy's face is familiar to all students, especially the members of the Dramatic Club, towards which he has directed much of his talent and energy, as a member of the essential technical crew . . . he will always remember the "Kickoff" of 1957, but he would gladly forget the hours he spent lifting weights in the gym . . . Andy is unsure about his future but we are sure he will be capable in whatever field he may enter. Dramatic Club 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 1, 2; Senior Prom Committee; Baseball Diamond Maintenance Crew.

GERALDINE RUTH ANGELL

July 19, 1941

Sweet . . . friendly . . . understanding . . . neat . . . Gerry has gained many good friends at Billerica Memorial High through her winning ways . . . and in her chosen field of physical therapy . . . that long, cold walk to school on frosty winter days could be very easily replaced, but the summer of '58 rates high with Gerry.

Tri-Delta; Bowling 3, 4; Pep Squad 3.

JOANNE BATTCOCK

December 30, 1941

Freckles . . . petiteness . . . personality . . . all these adjectives call to mind Jo . . . has a happy-go-lucky air with just enough seriousness to make her the all-round great person that she is . . . spending money fascinates her, however, the thought of being broke brings a frown . . . in whatever Jo attempts, success is bound to find her.

Tri-Delta; Homeroom Representative; J.V. Basketball 1, 2; Intramural Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Freshman and Sophomore Dance Committees; Junior and Senior Prom Committees.

CHARLOTTE MARIE BEANE

July 15, 1941

Well-dressed . . . well-groomed . . . well-known . . . perfectly describe our Charl, whose quiet air of assurance attracts others to her . . . always looks like a page from Seventeen or Glamour . . . capable student in the Commercial course . . . all these make a many-faceted Charl . . . her chief delight is a certain boy . . . crowded school busses get a negative answer . . . she would be an addition to any office.

Tri-Delta; Junior and Senior Prom Committees; Library Worker 2.

JEANINE BEAUCHESNE

Tommy . . . terrific . . . talent . . . fit Jeanine to a tee . . . her attractive personality . . . sweet smile . . . lovely green eyes . . . will always bring Jeanine to the minds of her classmates . . . getting up in the morning just does not agree with her, while Tommy is the magic word for her.

WESLEY EARL BECKWITH

Smiling face . . . easy going with an affable manner . . . Wes can usually be found riding horseback or behind the wheel of his supersonic buggy . . . he lists girls number one on his list, while tickets for speeding are found in the lowest position . . . the White House would be considerably livelier if Wes were to achieve his ambition to be President of the United States . . . but only time will tell.
Dramatic Club 4.

March 4, 1942

CAROL ANN BEVIS

A happy smile . . . a friendly way . . . Carol has that gift of making good friends quickly, which has made her one of our best-liked Seniors . . . long after graduation, she will be remembered for her quick humor . . . Mickey is the word that makes Carol happiest, while lazy people irritate her . . . the future holds for her a career as an efficient typist.

DAVID O. BRADY

April 14, 1941

A good worker . . . quiet but efficient . . . Dave is one of our clever Industrial Arts students who are an integral part of the Senior class . . . his achievements in this field have led him to his ambition to own a lathing business . . . has that perseverance which will no doubt make a successful businessman . . . Dave anxiously awaits graduation day . . . he won't miss those English assignments at all!
Bleacher Fund Drive.

ROBERT JAMES BRAFFITT

August 27, 1940

Bob is a truly witty person with a quick quip for any occasion . . . his humor has considerably brightened our four years together . . . his easy going manner is quite appealing to all . . . Bob's personal idea of heaven is a place populated, as he puts it, by "girls from six to sixty" . . . rated lower than low are kids who call him Tony (for obvious reasons) . . . whatever field Bob enters will be lucky to gain such an enjoyable person.
Senior Prom Committee; Bleacher Fund Drive; Baseball Diamond Maintenance Crew.

ROBERT FREDERICK BROWN

March 14, 1940

Friendliness . . . leadership . . . athletic plus . . . Brownie has been a dominant figure in our class . . . whether captaining a sport or heading Student Council, when Bob steps in, ability takes over . . . he'll always remember teaching Heather to drive the Dodge . . . excuses for being late to practice turn his smile to a frown . . . we are destined to hear great things of Bob.

Business Staff

The Wannalancet was born in an afternoon meeting of a group interested in having an extra special yearbook, with Mr. Cares, our English teacher, as advisor. With Marilyn Cooke and Alan Gage at the helm, an editorial staff was elected and a business staff organized. Going quickly to work, we prepared for our first deadline on December 15th, at which time we had achieved our goal of finishing fifty pages. The Christmas vacation found us striving to assemble the activity and undergraduate sections in time for the January 25th deadline.

In the meantime, the business staff had solicited advertisements and the sales staff had gone about their task of selling the Wannalancet to all the undergraduates. Our final deadline found us all breathing a deep sigh of relief, tempered with regret, for working on the Wannalancet has been an unforgettable experience for us all. We hope that the Wannalancet is, for you, an accurate recording of your high school years, and that you enjoy it now, and in the years to come.

TRI DELTA

For 25 years the Tri-Delta has been functioning in the Billerica High School as a service organization, comprised of Senior girls whose aims are to live up to the precepts of duty, deference, and decorum, upon which Tri-Delta was founded.

The officers, who are Lois Sargent, Pres.; Susan Spence, Vice-pres.; Dianne Lorden, Sec.; and Geraldine Angell, Treas.; and the girls whom they represent, plan and support their own activities. Included in the Tri-Delta calendar are the annual dance, Christmas party, Ice Follies trip, the May weekend, and the selling of chrysanthemums and carnations on Thanksgiving and St. Patrick's Days.

SIGNAL

Of vital importance in any society, is the printed word, which informs the people. With this truism in mind, the Smoke Signal staff prepares its publications.

Editor-in-chief Pat Collins and the Editorial Staff, Society Editor, Karyn Hansis; Feature Editor, Diane Desrosiers; Sports Editors, Rita Burke and Dan Buckley; Business Mgr., Marilyn Cooke; Assistant Editor, Patricia Lavery; could be usually found midst typewritten sheets, pictures, cartoons, and quotation books, as another press time drew near.

Published monthly, under the direction of Mrs. Cassin, the Smoke Signal serves as a message to the B.M.H.S. Indians.

They Did !!!!!

A vital component of our activity parade is the Pep Squad, which furnishes much spirit and encouragement for our wonderful Warriors, by attending all the football and basketball games. These dauntless female fans faithfully form an unbeatable cheering section.

Formed last year, under the guidance of the Student Council officers, the Pep Squad has attracted our most school-spirited misses. Donning their heavy white sweaters with their own insignia, this group has succeeded in supporting our cheerleaders and encouraging our boys on to endless victory.

Three years ago with its first presentations, "Pot Luck" and "Hill Billy Hi-Jinks," B.M.H.S.'s Dramatic Club enjoyed that sweet smell of success. Since that time the Club has grown in membership and accomplishments; among these being a sell-out Minstrel Show, "The Kickoff," "Date Bait," which was a source of laughter for theater goers in November, and the inspiring Christmas and Easter pageants.

During the past year, added attention has been drawn to the science program available to the students in our American schools. Many schools have been found lacking in opportunities for students whose interest lie in the scientific fields. Billerica Memorial, however, has always had a very active science club, membership in which is an honor. Chosen on the basis of their achievement in school work, the members have proved a credit to our school.

Mr. Sangermano, Advisor; M. Granfield, V.P.; C. Groth, Sec.; M. Dunn, Treas.; J. Amerault, Pres.; Mr. Luciano, Advisor.

With brush and palette in hand the members of our Art Club have painted their way to worthy praise, by their own artistic skill. Advised by Mrs. McHugh and guided by President Ed Martin, Vice-president Janet Fall, and Treasurer Susan Corkum, our amateur artists beautifully and appropriately adorned our school for the various holidays and kept the student body well informed with colorful posters.

BAND

The sunlight sparkling on golden uplifted horns, smartly clad music makers, and throbbing march rhythms—these are the sights and sounds called to mind by our school band. Under the direction of Miss Claire Nanis, the musical organization has flourished in the last few years. Present at all our football games, lending musical encouragement to the team and bringing enjoyment to the spectators, the band is an important part of the musical life at Billerica Memorial High School.

TWIRLERETTES

Organized four years ago by one of our most talented misses, the Twirlerettes have gone on to great success in competitions. The agile eleven, under the capable leadership of their organizer and teacher, Miss Judith Groves, have brought great honor to Billerica Memorial High School by their accomplishments. Donning their green woolen outfits with white accents, they afford a stunning appearance at our parades and games, and at competitions.

DEPARTMENT

DISC JOCKEYS

Included in the fond memories which we shall carry with us in the coming years is the music provided for us during our lunch hour. These popular tunes, spun by our disc jockeys, Ed Martin, Al Shaw, and Sal Passalacqua lighten our day by providing an interesting break in the day's activities.

E. Martin, A. Shaw, S. Passalacqua.

CHORUS

The voices which blend to make the harmony of our chorus are an indispensable part of our music department. Its talented members, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph Johnson, perform at our shows, pageants, and plays. Without their melodious background, our various functions could not be as enjoyable as they are.

The able leadership of the coaches, Charlie "Chuck" Lampson, George Gracie, Frank Luciano and Co-capt. Bob Brown and Dave Murray, coupled with a highly spirited and energetic team gave the Billerica Indians a very successful season, overall. Picked as a coming team at the outset, the players worked diligently perfecting plays, and only a heart breaking defeat, at the hands of Methuen in the rain and mud, spoiled their then perfect record.

CHEERLEADERS

Daddy, I'll miss you. Proud of you, for you're always there for me. Stay as you are now. Love Carol

Whenever there is an athletic event, a tournament, or similar occasion, our 11 Cheerleaders are always to be found. The squad, chosen on character, school spirit, leadership, personality, and scholastic record, is composed of: Carol Haviland, Mary McGurn, Barbara Sullivan, Dolly McGinness, Pat Collins, Pat Petipas, Pat Lavery, Carol Bonenfant.

Captain Dot Gaudet, Mrs. Adams, Captain Donna Turner.

Attention !!!

The princess style uniform of forest green corduroy is fashioned with scalloped collar and cuffs of white. Further laurels were brought upon the Cheerleaders when they copped first place in the Ashby Cheering Tournament for the second consecutive year. Advised by Mrs. Adams, the girls conduct pep rallies, promote school spirit, and create friendships between schools.

you're one of a kind, a real doll, that can cheer me up. I don't know how you do it. Love you.

We usually derive great pleasure in watching our teams win, however, winning is a mere fortune of the game. The fact that the team and its fans remain loyal is the most important thing and the girls this year have made themselves the pride and joy of B.M.H.S. Although Dame Fortune did not smile on our girls this year, the spirit of the team and their loyal followers was not dampened.

The players worked ardently and faithfully for Coach Hood and Captain Karyn Hansis, making each game a thrill to view.

TRIBAL LORE

We, the chieftains of the tribe, await our final step of accomplishment, our graduation; at which time we will terminate our membership as Billerica Indians and commence our role as young adults.

The following is a resumé of four years. Camouflaged behind these facts and figures on our totem pole are the real reasons for ultimate success; maidens and warriors with a sense of duty to tribe and town.

Commencing our high school career was all the more confusing, intriguing, and delightfully different because of our unfamiliarity with our modern facilities.

Under the advisorship of Mrs. Houghton and Mr. Merrifield, and the leadership of officers: William Lavery, Pres.; Dorothy Gaudet, Vice-pres.; Jacqueline Lee, Sec.; and Barbara Rounds, Treas.; we sponsored our first social, "Record Roundup."

Breaking precedent, Donna Turner and Dot Gaudet, both Freshmen, were chosen to head the cheerleaders in their senior year.

Soon after selecting our Sophomore officers: Pat Collins, Pres.; Dot Gaudet, Vice-pres.; Gladys McGinness, Sec.; Barbara Rounds, Treas.; we gathered stalks and pumpkins and decorated for the "Harvest Hop."

The possibility of having a Student Council was discussed and made a reality in the Spring of '57. Four of our classmates, Bill Lavery, Pat Collins, Karyn Hansis, and Diane Desrosiers were elected to serve the following year on Billerica High's first Council.

Poised and ready to strike a bull's eye of success, we Juniors selected Pres., William Lavery; Vice-pres., David Barrelle; Sec., Patricia Collins; Treas., Barbara Rounds. Choosing a class ring posed a problem which was soon solved in the selecting of a Balfour Company and a modern piece of handicraft.

The Beacon Light Chapter of the National Honor Society was formed in the middle of the year with 16 of our members elected and presented with pins.

In November, a sellout review, "The Kickoff," was presented. Thanksgiving Day was an important one indeed; game with Chelmsford and Victory Dance with trophies awarded.

The most important social event of our high school life, our Junior Prom, "Moonlight Melody," was chairmanned by Claire Caissie. We'll not forget Queen Carol Roy and her princesses: Diane Desrosiers, Gladys McGinness, Gloria Lohnes, Dianne Lorden, Roberta Farwell, and Marilyn Martell.

From our Seniors sage and superior we chose as officers; William Lavery, Pres.; David Barrelle, Vice-pres.; Dorothy Gaudet, Sec.; Barbara Rounds, Treas.; our Wannalancet, under the advisorship of Mr. Cares was organized; the cast of "Date Bait" began rehearsing; and we were on our way.

A meritorious football season which was a zenith of skill, sportsmanship and school spirit came to a jubilant ending in the Turkey Day triumph over the Chelmsford Lions.

The Mistletoe Hop, the Christmas dance sponsored by the Smoke Signal was highlighted by the crowning of B.M.H.S.'s first Snow Queen, Dolly McGinness.

Our Senior Prom was set for the ominous date Friday, February 13, but not pessimistic were our chairman, Claire Caissie and the many couples who attended Winter Wonderland. In a land of silver, white, blue and green, Donna Turner reigned as Queen, whose court consisted of Gladys McGinness, Diane Desrosiers, Gloria Lohnes, Barbara Piper, Karyn Hansis, and Diane Lorden.

In February, the girls varsity squad and the Senior cheerleaders traveled to the Ashby Tourney and put another feather in our band by bringing home nine trophies—good sportsmanship trophy, finals trophy and others.

Our four years have been composed of many emotions and experiences; the excitement of cheering our teams to victory, the eagerness of awaiting a big dance; tenseness before report cards; the gaiety of Tri Delta parties and trips.

With memories like elephants, we won't forget for many moons: Chuck's penny jar, the victory rides after our football wins, pajama parties, locker room conferences and pranks, night rehearsals for the shows, the braving of the elements to get ads, the inspiring Christmas scenes in the lobby and the pageants.

We, the largest class to graduate and the first to have gone four years through B.M.H.S., smoke the last peace pipe on the reservation, add ourselves to the totem pole and crush the smokey embers of a campfire.

We Seniors hope that we proved ourselves by loyally serving and doing all that time and opportunity allowed. We regret our leaving these happy hunting grounds but we'll be proud to say that we are graduates of B.M.H.S. and to tell our story— a success story.

"Who is the third who walks always beside?"

"All discord — harmony not understood"

"Abundantly supplies all our life—"
"Dear John—"

"By what sine shall I know thee?"
"What scenes appear where'er I turn my view?"

"One impulse from a vernal wood."

"Left me to see neglected genius bloom."

TRIBAL TESTAMENT

Darkness was falling as the solemn group of our squaws and warriors formed the tribal council. Soon we would be leaving Billerica Memorial High School forever and, lest our bequests to the underclassmen be lost to posterity, Chief Lavery called us together. The purpose of this meeting was to make a record of our gifts to the younger maidens and braves. Recorded below is the last will and testament of the class of 1959.

We, the class of 1959, hereby bequeath the following:

To the class of 2009, the staff of the Wannalancet leaves a copy of the Wannalancet and our ledgers, to help them with the organization of their yearbook.

I, Richard Anderson, leave the auditorium and the stage equipment to the future backstagers.

We, Geraldine Angell, Susan Granfield, and Bob Murray, leave our "red heads" temperaments to three mild-mannered members of the class of 1960.

We, Dorothy Gaudet, Donna Turner, Mary McGurn, Carole Haviland, Gladys McGinness, Patricia Collins and Barbara Sullivan leave with memories of the Ashby Tournament and with a vote of thanks and affection to Mrs. Adams.

To Carl Huber and Richard Sylvester, from Bob Brown and Dave Murray, goes the captaincy of our football team and a wish for a successful season.

We, Romey Capobianco and Sissy Forsley, leave our Chicken Pluckers' Union badges.

To Brenda Sampson, I, Jean Colton, bequeath Alexander.

I, Marilyn Cooke, leave to Tina Grady, a small toy pistol with which to defend herself against Mr. Nuttall's wild sense of humor in Trig class.

I, John McHugh, leave my beautiful blush to some lucky junior.

To Mr. Nuttall, I, Gerald McDonald, leave a hundred feet of broken film and a large bottle of aspirin.

I, Rita Burke, leave my season's ticket to the Celtics' games and an 8' x 10' picture of Tommy Heinsohn.

To some lucky female, I, Barbara Rounds, leave my admiration for Mr. Gracie.

We, Sue MacConnell, Phyllis Sanises, and Lois Sargent, leave to do our stretching exercises.

I, Dan Buckley, leave my good disposition to Mr. Cares.

We, Karyn Hansis and Dianne Desrosiers, leave our friendly ways.

To some uncouth underclassmen, goes the sophistication of Dianne Lorden and Bob Collier.

I, Betty Lewien, leave with my laughter echoing in the halls.

We, Claire Caissie and Susan Corkum, would leave but we are knee-deep in decorations and paint pots.

To join Senõr Wences, I, George Carpenter, leave you laughing.

I, Buster Hansis, leave my "Ballad of the Lonesome Cowboy" to an upcoming Junior.

To any brave junior, I, Wanda Bruce, leave my place in period three English class.

I, John Clark, leave my wit to a Junior who is in need of it.

I, Brad Covell, leave my I.O.U. for ten dollars.

I, Alice Dias, leave my compositions to a Junior with the hope that she gets better marks than I did.

To my sister, Velma, I, Alan Gage, leave my membership in the National Honor Society.

Four wonderful years of high school go to Charlie Hallenborg from his sister, Ruth.

With my baton in hand, I, Judy Groves, leave B.M.H.S.

I, Steve Kelley, leave my devastating charm to some lucky youngster.

To a future Senior, I, Peter Marshall, leave a vast supply of admit slips, black and white.

I, Eddy Martin, leave my turntable to Sal Passalacqua and Al Shaw.

I, Dom Catalfimo, leave my Sideline sports outfit.

To my brother, Paul, I, Mike Rae, leave the memories of my high school years.

To this will we do attest, this twenty-first day of February, in the year of our Lord, 1959.

Editor's Page

I really enjoyed working on the yearbook and I know, due to the efforts of all who helped, that the Wannalancet will be a book of which we can be proud.

Dot Gaudet, Art Editor

As a member of the graduating class of 1959, I am proud to have played a small part in the organization of the Wannalancet.

To all the yearbook staff members who really pitched in to make our yearbook a success, I wish to express my thanks. To the editors, without whose help we would not have succeeded, I extend my deepest appreciation and gratitude.

I also wish that the future classes use Wannalancet as a standard name for their yearbook.

Allan Gage, Co-Editor-in-Chief

With baggy eyes we met the deadlines;
And tried to get Boosters without fines.

We've had our fun,
and now it's done!

Nancy Poehler, Literary Editor

I would like to say that I have had a wonderful time working on the Wannalancet, and I hope the seniors next year have as good a time.

Betty Lewien, Associate Editor

Now that the Wannalancet is complete, we of the staff have an opportunity to take an objective look at our book and the work that was put into it. I personally feel that much of the credit for the work done should go to our advisor, who did more than was required of him. To the photographers of Loring Studios and to Mr. Farnham, I would like to express my thanks. Lastly, to the members of the staff, who worked so hard, goes my gratitude. Assembling the Wannalancet has been an unforgettable experience.

Marilyn Cooke, Co-Editor-in-Chief

We squaws and braves have worked 'til weary,

Wampum rasin' and settlin' queries.

With a bow and arrow we did aim,
For Wannalancet that would win acclaim.

And now our task is o'er and done,
We hope it will be enjoyed by everyone.

Pat Collins, Assistant Editor

I wish to thank all those on the business staff who worked to make the Wannalancet a success.

Gerry MacDonald, Business Manager

Mr. Farnham, Gerry, Marilyn,
Alan.

Oh, how I will remember the deadlines we had to meet, but in spite of it all I have really enjoyed working on the Wannalancet.

Claire Caissie, Art Editor

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the editors of the Wannalancet for their untiring efforts to make this book a success.
